Discussion Questions

- 1) What are your main sources of wisdom and instruction (podcasts, TV series, news programs, websites, etc.)? Do you allow them to shape your perspective and worldview as much as or more than the Bible? How much time is spent receiving from each?
- 2) What steps do we need to take in order to not walk in the counsel of the wick, stand in the way of sinners, or sit in the seat of scoffers? Are their relationships or activities in your life that need to change in order to follow this passage?
- 3) Be honest: do you tend to view God's Word more as something you have to read because you're a Christian, or as a gift given to you by God? How is God asking you to shift your perspective?
- 4) What biblical practices are already in your life that help you to bear fruit? What practices, habits, and relationships in your life seldom produce anything but useless chaff? In each case, what is God asking you to do so that you might know greater blessing and fruitfulness in him?
